MOIR LASTED TEN ROUNDS

ENGLISH PUGILIST WAS AN EASY MARK FOR TOMMY BURNS.

IN A BATTLE AT LONDON.

The American Representative Easily Secured for Himself the Title of Heavyweight Champion of the World.

London, Dec. 3.—Tommy Burns, of America, knocked out Gunner Moir, of England, in the tenth round before the National Sporting club here last night. Englishmen never had such hopes of the ability of their representative to regain their lost honors in the boxing arena, and in a somewhat unexpected contest the American champion had a comparatively easy task in disposing of Moir's pretensions and securing for himself the title of heavyweight champion of the world.

After the fifth round Burns' victory was certain and in the tenth, when the gunner failed to raise to the call of time and was literally cut to pieces, Burns left the ring with scarcely a mark.

Moir owes his right to participate in championship matches more to influence than to merit, and his defeat was not a matter of general surprise. Burns proved himself superior in every detail. He displayed greater science and infinitely better generalship and his blows were delivered with much more power than those of the Englishman. It was an easy victory for the American, which from the very outset appeared almost a foregone conclusion. The contest aroused a greater amount of excitement than any decided at the National Sporting club since Slavia's defeat at the hands of Peter Jackson.

Burns entered the ring the favorite at odds of 7 to 4, which would have been still larger but for the fact that the two titled backers of Moir covered the Burns money for a large amount, on the chance of a big win in addition to the stake money.

Except for the difference in weight and Moir's advantage of two inches in height, the men were evenly matched and in perfect form.

In the eighth round Moir came back gamely, but he was fought all over the ring and badly punished. Burns set upon him unmercifully in the following round, administering terrific punishment. Moir was now in a sorry plight and the bell saved him from being put out.

Burns came quickly to the center of the ring in the tenth and forced matters from the start. He sent the gunner to the floor with a short right arm jolt. Moir rose, only to be floored again from a hard left on the jaw. He struggled to his feet, but was an easy victim for another cross on the jaw and going down, was unable to respond to the call of time.

Alleged Murderer Is Arrested.

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 3.—David Sanchez, who was arrested Sunday, charged with the murder of Miss Jennie Templeton, was given a hearing Monday at Velarde, N. M., and bound over for trial. BRADLEY CASE IS UP TO THE JURY

JUDGE REJECTS THEORY OF EMOTIONAL INSANITY.

ARGUMENTS OF LAWYERS

Took Up a Large Portion of Monday's Session of Court—The Judge's Charge to the Jurymen was Brief and Concise.

Washington, Dec. 3.—After a trial which had attracted widespread interest since its inception almost three weeks ago, with witnesses brought nearly across the continent, the case of Mrs. Annie M. Bradley, charged with the murder of ex-United States Senator Arthur Brown, of Utah, last night rested in the hands of the jury. Throughout the earlier part of the day Attorneys Powers and Hoover, with recitals of the episodes that led to the tragedy and pleading insanity of the defendant at the time she shot Brown in a hotel here on December 8, 1936, argued for the defense and when court convened after recess District Attorney Baker, attacking the theory of insanity and arraighing the defendant in scathing language, made the closing address.

Judge Stafford occupied 52 minutes in charging the jury and concluded at 4:17. The charge among other things said that a person is not legally responsible in law when he is capable of understanding the physical nature of his act but for instance the defendant, if found guilty, must have been capable of understanding she was shooting Brown, of understanding whether the act is right or wrong, and must be capable of controlling his action and of choosing the right and retreating from the wrong. Mental incapacity must be the result of mental disease. The law distinguishes sharply between disease and mere passion.

"If one," said the court, "is kindled by rage, jealousy, or any other passion so he (or she) cannot understand what he is doing, or that it is wrong, or cannot resist his impulse to gratify his passion, it may reduce the grade of his offense, but does not constitute insanity. The theory of emotional insanity is utterly rejected by the law of this jurisdiction. If there is reasonable doubt about the defendant's responsibility there is reasonable doubt about her guilt, and the law declares that she shall be acquitted."

When Mrs. Bradley, nervous, trembling and anxious, was led back to the cell under the court room, she was joined by her eldest boy.

At 10 o'clock last night word came from the jury room that there was no prospect of soon reaching a verdict.

Accordingly Judge Stafford ordered that the jury be locked up until court meets to-day at 10 a. m.
